Nasser Rips Soviet Decision To Resume Nuclear Tests

Urges Meeting Of Kennedy, Nikita

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—President Nasser told the opening session of the conference of nonaligned nations today that the Soviet decision to resume nuclear tests was a shock and would cause the international situation to deteriorate further.

The other two sponsors of the 24-nation conference, Presidents Tito of Yugoslavia and Sukarno of Indonesia, made no mention of the Soviet nuclear decision in their speeches at the conference's first plenary session.

But Nasser, leader of the United Arab Republic, expressed "deep regret" at the Soviet announcement and said it was "a shock to me and to world public opinion."

"Whatever the reasons were for the Soviet government decision," Nasser said, "its most important and clear significance is grave deterioration in the international situation."

Nasser called Berlin and Germany the "problem of problems" and said a meeting between President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev is "imperative . . . at the earliest."

The Arab leader said "saber rattling" must end and an "opportunity be left open for calm negotiations on the highest level."

Tito told the 23 other leaders their meeting would assert their right to participate with the big powers in solving world problems.

The Yugoslav president complained that "there still prevails, as in the past, the practice that only the biggest, the most advanced and militarily the most powerful countries attempt to make decisions involving the fate of the world."

This meeting, Tito said, "illustrates, however, that such outdated practices must be discarded, that nonaligned countries can no longer reconcile themselves with the status of observers and voters and that in their opinion, they have the right to participate in the solving of world problems, particularly those which endanger peace."

Indonesian President Sukarno, a sponsor of the meeting along with Tito and Nasser, called for recognition of both West and East Germany and talks between the two to solve the Berlin problem, reorganization of the United Nations, peaceful coexistence between the Western and Soviet blocs and a new effort to achieve disarmament. He did not refer to

Reds Jar Hopes for Disarming

Soviet Nuclear Test Stand Gives U.S. Propaganda Gain

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union's decision to resume testing of nuclear weapons has dealt a crippling blow to hopes in the United Nations for East-West progress on disarmament.

But it has given the United States a golden opportunity to win great support among the Asian-African nations — the so-called neutralist group — provided the Americans play it cool. And President Kennedy is giving every indication of doing just that.

That is the consensus among many veteran observers here assessing the impact of the Soviet announcement.

The Asian-African diplomats in general shared the shock and dismay of other diplomats outside the Soviet bloc at the Soviet decision. They have been in the forefront of the long-standing demands for an end to nuclear weapon tests, as well as overall progress in disarmament. They had hoped along with the others that a test ban treaty would give the world a big push toward a disarmament agreement.

The United States abstained because it already proposed that the U.N. General Assembly opening Sept. 19 take up the urgent need for a treaty to ban nuclear weapon tests under effective international control.

Last year the assembly approved without a dissent a resolution calling for a test ban treaty and continued suspension of tests. The United States abstained because the resolution did not spell out the significance of effective controls.

The United States now will undoubtedly try to get the assembly

Four Boys Held In Golf Club Burglaries

LISBON — Four juveniles — three 13-year-olds from Knox Township and a 15-year-old boy from Alliance — await hearings before Judge Louis Tobin in connection with recent burglaries at Snoopy Hollow Golf course in Knox Township.

The last burglary occurred Wednesday night. Manager Gus Peterson told Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan the intruders took 25 dozen golf balls, $22 in change and an electric razor. They used a spray can of red paint to "touch up" everything in sight, even inside the cash register.

Deputy Sheriff Howard Gray obtained an admission from the youths Thursday night. He said the parents were cooperative and persuaded the boys to confess to the burglaries.

Gray said the boys broke into the clubhouse Aug. 18. Peterson reported at that time that $137 and four dozen golf balls were taken. The youths said they sold the balls to women golfers.

Holiday Traffic May Kill 420

Heaviest Motor Travel Foreseen

By The Associated Press
Millions of persons got ready today for the last long holiday weekend of the summer season.

The heaviest motor travel in the nation's history was indicated by safety experts over the three-day Labor Day holiday.

An estimated 74 million cars are ready to roll as motorists prepared to head for vacation and recreation spots, for family outings, to cities and to rural areas.

But a grim warning already has been made by the National Safety Council to the millions of motorists who will be on the road: 420 persons may be killed during the 78-hour holiday period from 6 p.m. today to midnight Monday (local time).

The council estimated that nearly 8 billion miles of highway travel will be logged—averaging more than 105 million miles an hour during the holiday period.

The council also estimated that traffic accidents may injure some 17,000 persons. Trains, planes and busses will add to the huge traveling load. Resorts across the country were reported ready for their biggest weekend of the summer.

Law enforcement officials arranged special details to handle traffic and hold the number of

Youths Share Honors In Agriculture Awards

Attendance at opening day Thursday at the 115 annual Mahoning County Fair at Canfield was 32,868 an increase of 2,531 over the first-day crowds last year.

It was Youth Day at the agriculture exposition and hundreds of young people helped to swell the attendance.

4-H King and Queen Crowned
The highlight of Youth Day was the presentation of the 4-H Royal Court for 1961. Miss Violet Ciarnello of the Austintown Farmers 4-H Club was crowned queen and Harvey Hartley of the Beaver Buckeye Boys was crowned king by the 1960 king, Myron Wehr of the Mill Creek My-T-Mites 4-H Club.

Other members of the Royal Court were Ruthann Bacon of New Springfield Jolly Juniors and George Stacy of the Beaver Buckeye Boys; Mary Beth Wylam, Coitsville 4-H Clovers, and Jan Moser of Ellsworth Junior Farmers; Eloise Withers Duriga, Greenford Silver Spurs, and Robert Dorkes, Springfield Booster Boys, and Virginia Deckant and Jim Cain of the Ellsworth Sadleynates.

In the 4-H steer judging, a Hereford owned by William Miller of the Beaver Buckeye Boys Club, was declared champion. Reserve champion honors went to Kathy Razo of New Middletown. Trophies are to be presented at the steer sale tonight.

Pennsylvania Day was being observed today. The fair closes Labor Day evening.

Temperatures hovered near 90 degrees yesterday and refreshment stands were crowded, but exhibit halls were equally crowded. Fifty-one club have exhibits entered in the Floral Hall, with displays under the supervision of Mrs. Francis Wright of Canfield.

Myron West of Damascus, Mahoning County school attendance officer, has charge of the school exhibits. Over at the horticulture building A. B. Williamson of Salem is exhibiting apples, grapes and peaches for the 40th consecutive year. Richard Bare is a new exhibitor in that department.

Audrey Harrold of Leetonia, who is showing Ayrshire cattle, is the only lady exhibitor in the cattle department. On her 96-acre farm she has 25 Ayrshires, 20 Holsteins and 90 hogs.

John Hawkins and Sons whose Guernsey farm at New Waterford has produced some champion stock, has entries at the Canfield fair for the eighth year, as is Curtis F. Hively and Sons

Goulart at Fringe Of Brazil Border

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—Vice President Joao Goulart today reached the fringe of the Brazilian border for a dramatic return to claim the presidency that may plunge South America's biggest nation into civil war.

Beaming with confidence, the vice president bided his time in Montevideo—only about an hour's flying time from the border—as rival military forces jockeyed cautiously for position still hundreds of miles apart.

Brazil's three military chiefs, headed by War Minister Marshal Odilio Denys, announced Thursday a combined operation had been launched to subdue the pro-Goulart forces in the southern state of Rio Grande do Sul, the vice president's home.

There were reports of small-scale landings at several points but no fighting was reported.

Called Pro-Communist

Goulart, 42, blackballed for the presidency by the military chiefs as being pro-Communist, told newsmen in the Uruguayan capital his position is "shaping up good" as the week-long crisis created by the sudden resignation of President Janio Quadros seems to near a showdown.

Goulart did not say when, where or how he would make his return entry into the country. But he has proclaimed at every step of his slow journey back from a Far Eastern tour that took him to Peiping: "I am returning to Brazil to assume the presidency."

The leftist Labor party leader emphasized he favors a constitutional government founded on democratic principles and declared: "I am not a Communist."

Marshal Denys, army strongman masterminding the interim government, reportedly ordered the air force to patrol the Brazilian-Uruguayan border and intercept the vice president's plane if he should try to fly back. There was some speculation Goulart would travel overland.

Side With Goulart

It was assumed Goulart would go to Rio Grande do Sul, across the frontier from Uruguay, where State Gov. Leonel Brizola, Goulart's brother-in-law, and Gen. Jose Machado Lopes, commander of the 60,000-man 3rd Army. Both defied Denys and sided with the vice president.

Preparations were made to welcome Goulart at Porto Alegre. Brizola met with state officials Thursday night and reportedly discussed plans for Goulart to set up a national government at the state university in Porto Alegre. Later the governor conferred with Goulart by telephone.

Brizola in a broadcast appealed to interim President Ranieri Mazzilli in "the name of legality and the constitution" to go to Porto Alegre and hand over to Goulart the presidency from which Quadros resigned a week ago. The governor said his forces were not rebels but were committed to maintain the principles of legality.

"We will not fire the first shot," Brizola declared, "but we will fire the second and then many more."

Kenmar-Union Talks Bog Down

EAST PALESTINE — Kenmar Manufacturing announced today that there are no further meetings scheduled with striking production workers, following a meeting yesterday in which the union rejected a company proposed six-month extension of the old working contract.

The union countered with a request for a 12-month extension. The union spokesman proposed yesterday a fourth meeting for Sept. 5. The company statement today indicated that the meeting won't be held.

The strike started at midnight Aug. 14 with 120 workmen idled. Yesterday's meeting was the fourth meeting held with a federal conciliator. Kenmar manufacturing is a leading concern here.

FBI Probes Possibility of Bomb Explosion

TWA Constellation Plows Into Field; All Aboard Killed

CHICAGO (AP) — A TWA Constellation exploded, crashed and burned in a corn field near suburban Hinsdale early today, killing 78 persons, and hours later the FBI investigated the possibility that a bomb may have caused the crash.

"We have men on the scene investigating the possibility that a federal law may have been violated," said a spokesman for the FBI in Washington. "Some of those who saw the crash say there was an explosion."

Carried 73 Passengers

The giant airliner, carrying 73 passengers and a crew of 5, crashed minutes after taking off from Midway Airport at 2 a.m. EST. It plowed into a corn field and burned. All 78 aboard perished in the flaming wreckage.

It was the third worst commercial plane accident within the 49 states of the U.S. mainland.

The Trans World Airlines plane, en route to Los Angeles from Boston with stops in New York, Pittsburgh and Chicago, crashed into a sparsely settled residential district. It did not touch any of the five homes in a new housing development.

The flaming four-engine plane plowed across a path some two blocks long, witnesses said, and burned furiously after burrowing into the rain-soaked corn field.

Wreckage of the plane smoldered more than four hours after the crash. No bodies had been removed from the fiddle. But blue Civil Defense tarpaulins shrouded at least 32 bodies sprawled grotesquely near the burning giant plane.

Three Persons Injured In Road Mishaps

Three persons suffered minor injuries in two highway accidents that occurred in the area Thursday and early this morning.

Susan Horn, 18, of RD 5, Lisbon, was treated at Salem City Hospital for sore knees and bruises of the left elbow received at 3:20 a.m. today when she lost control of her car on Rt. 154, four and a half miles east of Lisbon, and struck a power pole. She was released from the hospital after treatment.

The state highway patrol said she apparently was headed east when the mishap occurred. Damage to the car was light.

Vernon Wittenbrook, 37, of Homeworth, and his two-year-old daughter, Marlene, were treated by an Alliance physician for bruises received when their car ran into a ditch on County Road 701, just east of the Stark County line, at 1 p.m. Thursday.

Wittenbrook suffered a bruised chest and his daughter a bruised forehead.

The patrol said Wittenbrook was driving north on Rt. 701 when the car ran into the ditch. The car was not damaged.

Spike-Heel Issue

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—How do you stand on the spike-heel issue? This is developing into quite a controversy.

In question are the high, almost needle-pointed steel heels now being worn by millions of American women ranging from teen-agers to grandmothers.

To the casual male eye a woman wobbling by on these stiltlike shoes is neither more nor less ridiculous looking than the same woman was a few years back when she affected "the sack look" and resembled an unleashed blimp.

But critics of spike heels say they aren't funny. They say they are a private danger and a public menace.

The ladies trip and fall on their proud cold faces, and get up and file damage suits against anyone in sight.

Their heels get caught in escalators, subway gratings, rubber welcome mats, manhole covers, and sidewalk cracks.

Their heels rip expensive rugs to tatters, punch holes in air-planes, and scar and dent the strongest flooring.

As a recent magazine article pointed out, a woman poised on a pair of these ambulant stilettos exerts a far greater weight per square inch than does an elephant.

But despite the hue and cry being raised against this style of feminine footwear, I rather favor it—and I'll tell you why.

The other day a fat lady shopper loaded with bundles stood in the street, perspiring in the 90-plus degree heat as she waited for the traffic light to change.

It finally did change, but still she stayed motionless. She tugged and tugged, but couldn't move.

Both her spike heels had become caught in the hot asphalt, and she was slowly sinking into the street. Looking around helplessly, she espied me.

"Don't just stand there gawk-ing," she said authoritatively. "Do something."

Well, as a crowd gathered, I bent manfully to the task. In 15 minutes, with the aid of three passing Boy Scouts, I finally managed to set her free.

The crowd broke into applause, the fat lady mumbled "Thanks," and stomped off—on her toes.

Well, I guess that applause—and being publicly thanked by a woman—kind of went to my head.

In my lunch hours now I hang around subway gratings, manhole covers and office escalators, and so far have managed to rescue four more damsels, caught by the heel and struggling. Now I bow when the applause breaks out.

That's why I am in favor of ladies' spike heels. When the inevitable emergency arises, it enables a fellow to become a knight errant and prove that male gallantry isn't quite as dead as vaudeville.

The New Post Office

It took a bit of doing, but Salem is now assured of a new Post Office building.

Ralph A. Durbin of Euclid, the successful bidder, has built four other post offices for the government on similar lease arrangements.

It will be only a matter of days until he exercises the options obtained earlier by the U. S. Post Office Department on the site at Penn and Columbia St. and within a matter of weeks the job of dismantling the five residences properties will begin.

When the new Post Office building is completed sometime next Spring, its architectural lines will be in sharp contrast to the pillared edifice which has graced the downtown corner of State St. and N. Lincoln Ave. since 1914.

The present building is not beyond repair, but the government declined to invest any funds in repair or expansion because facilities are limited. If an addition were built, all available parking space and truck maneuvering area would be gone. As it is, big trucks which haul much of today's mail can hardly reach the existing loading dock.

The new building, to be located about three blocks from the present site and adjacent to the city's new parking lot, will be a modern, one-story structure with no steep steps for patrons to negotiate. Elderly persons have found the steps at the present building both wearisome and hazardous.

The new Post Office will be a fine addition to Salem's expanding downtown business district and this newspaper is glad to have had a part in helping other civic-minded groups and individuals bring the project into being.

The Man Spoke the Truth

The man who commented that war is hell was talking about the personal tragedy that mass murder inflicts on individuals in millions of little ways.

But cold wars are more fashionable these days than hot ones, and even the cold ones have their devilish impact on individual lives in a million little ways.

CONSIDER, for instance, the decision of President Kennedy to build up the manpower ready for instant action.

National Guard and reserve units have been alerted for quick call. This involves a million men.

They don't know for sure that they will be called. They've only been told they may be, pending the turn of events in Berlin.

If they are going to be called, they don't know when. Officials one day estimate it probably won't be for some months, then report the next day it could be within the month. In all likelihood the brass in Washington don't really know.

The young man who is a member of this vast reserve then faces some personal problems.

If he has just been graduated from high school or college, should he look hard to a job, or just wait and see what happens? If he looks for a job, will anyone hire him, knowing he might get greetings from Uncle Sam before he has learned for sure when it's time for a daily coffee break?

Or suppose the reservist already has a job and is contemplating marrying the girl of his dreams. Should he go ahead and tie the knot, or wait until he can start his married life on a more settled basis? If the wedding bells are clanging irresistibly in his ears, should he plan to set up house-keeping with his bride, or make some arrangements with the in-laws in case he's called to uniform before the honeymoon is over?

THAT DOESN'T even scratch the surface of the dislocations of mind, body, and spirit that result from an alert from Washington. But it's enough to show that war is hell, whether it's hot or cold.

The Hard-Core Unemployed

In its detailed report on July employment, the Labor Department found that total non-farm jobs are back to the prerecession level of a year ago but the picture is misleading.

The number of jobs in industry, for example, still is 300,000 below a year ago and 450,000 below the early 1960 peak. Jobs on the railroads and other transportation industries are down 100,000.

To balance out the deficit in industry and transportation are the 300,000 more jobs in state and local governments and the 115,000 more jobs in service industries.

Looking ahead over the next few months, Seymour Wolfbein, Labor Department expert, looks for a gradual increase in manufacturing employment as a result of defense spending but industry will have to boom more than now is expected to end "hard-core" unemployment.

The Labor Department expert predicts a gradual decline from July's high of 5.1 million unemployed to 4 million in October, then a sharp rise to 4.6 at the year-end.

Who are these "hard-core" unemployed? According to the Labor Department, the composite jobless worker was between 25 and 55 years of age and unskilled or semi-skilled worker in durable goods industries.

He was a resident of one of six large industrial states—California, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan and Illinois—and was receiving approximately 32 a week in unemployment benefits.

By mid-June, he had received about 22 weeks of benefits with about 10 weeks left before his benefit payments would expire in August.

Seemingly this "hard core" of unemployed will remain unabsorbable even in an otherwise prosperous economy.

On With the Overalls

Secretary of State Rusk reportedly told a Senate subcommittee that progress is being made in trimming down on "striped-pants" formality in the diplomatic service.

This is encouraging on two counts. If the secretary has time to devote to the striped-pants situation, the world situation may not be as bad as it seems. On the other hand, if the world situation worsens, the striped-pants situation may be trailed to give him more time in working duels.

The rumor that one committeeman went off the beam, returning home wearing a Kris Kringle costume around midnight and demanded, "Why haven't the kids hung up their socks?" is untrue.

"THE NEWLY APPOINTED U.S. ambassador to Brazil learned to play the cello at 40. He is the kind of man who sleeps easily and a great deal. He cuts his own firewood with an axe and chain saw and rides a bicycle from his Harvard office to his home."—News item. Maybe trying to figure out the significance of this is why Quadroe suddenly quit.

One auto company has a 1962 model that sleeps eight people. We had the idea enough people were sleeping in this year's models.

New Broadway play is called, "Umbrella." Producers hope it will have good opening and be hard to close.

Union of the unemployed is now proposed. Purpose is to help unemployed get faster attention and help. It is a good idea, but it will seem funny to hear, "I'm a member of the Unemployed Workers Union and if I don't get my rights I'll quit."

Bay State prison officials have turned down a request for pole-vaulting facilities in prison athletic program. Otherwise all present pole-vault records might be shattered.

Bureau of Labor Statistics says cost of living, especially in food supplies, is at all-time high. Probably the bureau officials ordered a steak dinner, a couple of hard rolls and an extra cup of coffee.

Son of Henry Cabot Lodge, found on yacht safe outside Branford, Conn., harbor, after all-night hunt in fog, says, "There was no need for alarm. It was a good harbor so we just stayed there." Anybody who can get into Branford harbor in a fog is a sailor of the year. Even getting into it in clear weather calls for sharp work among reefs, rocks and narrow passages. But it's a beautiful spot when you make it.

Mr. Nehru Holds a Press Conference

New Type of Refugee

By VICTOR RIESEL

It seems only hours ago that awkwardly, as though deserting a friend, I was saying goodbye to a tense "Governing Mayor" Willy Brandt in the West Berlin City Hall, once a sprawling old borough hall. He had almost literally to dart to an appointment with some of our military but first he tarried long enough to say: "Now ask the brothers Kennedy to come. We need them." Then Brandt, with an uncharacteristic sigh, added: "When you fly out, if you run into some of our refugees, tell them there will be a tomorrow. We'll await their return."

At the melodramatic Tempelhof airport, with its exciting surging crowds—and later aboard Pan American World Airways' big DC-6B, it was not difficult to pick out the refugee.

His most characteristic piece of luggage is the baby carriage. He and his courageous lady have pushed it all the way from beyond the barbed-wire fence now reinforced with brick walls.

IT IS THE MOVING VAN of the walk to freedom—while the child rests in his parents' arms. The baby carriage is not there, of course, in the passenger cabin but you can tell refugees from the others. They look hungry. Yet they shy from food—at first. They never have flown before. They do not know the meal is theirs for nothing. Even then, there are some foods their stomachs, accustomed to the rationing of the Sovzone, cannot take. Orange juice, for example. Bland bouillon, yes. Thicker, slightly richer foods, no.

THUS IT GOES on one of Pan American's 64 daily flights, which—along with the British and the French lines—has been accused of carrying anti-Communist spies and saboteurs. What has irritated the Soviets has been the number of East Germans Pan American has flown out.

In the past 15 years Pan Am's big DC-6Bs—which are piston planes because Tempelhof, set right in the heart of the city, takes no jets—have transported 500,000 refugees to the unlimited horizons of the West.

Before the August 13 closing of the sector line, Pan Am took out 400 refugees a day. They came out at a special fare of $11.50 paid by the German Federal Republic.

They left the city on 446 weekly flights to Hanover, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Duesseldorf, Bonn, Cologne (where they often went first to the majestic cathedral), Stuttgart, Munich and Nurnberg.

NO SIMPLE FLIGHTS these. They must be made inside three 20-mile wide air corridors. All flights are under strict surveillance by Russian radar. To stray, because of bad weather or even the slightest miscalculation, could create an international incident.

Thus, all flights are made on instruments even when conditions are perfect for visual flight rules. So Pan Am picks some of the world's best navigators. Though Pan Am has not been involved in any incidents, there are always Russian MIGs around to look things over and monitor the air lanes.

I promised myself I would not leave Berlin without telling the world of the skill of the 120 men in the 40 operating crews.

Sounds maudlin? Maybe. But remember those airline pilots and navigators haven't once strayed out of the lanes in all these years—not even during the great airlift. And there was no movie script to guide them. Not even a Gregory Peck. Just instruments.

DURING THE JULY 1946 to May 1949 airlift, Pan American joined with the U.S., British and French air forces. America's airline helped carry more than 13 million pounds of vital cargo to the besieged Berliners.

This, including some 30,000 passengers in and out of Berlin on the routes I've just flown.

Oldtimers in Berlin remember they managed fairly well on rations which came in over the aerial route—but young Berliners were tots then. Today they are becoming the newest type of "refugee"—the escapee from West Berlin to West Germany.

The younger people—let's face it—don't want to live in a city noosed-in by barbed wire, brick walls, tanks and machine guns. They don't see any future there.

They're beginning to fly out at such rates that soon we may have little to defend but a shining city of half-empty streets.

It will take something dramatic to keep the young folks home. Surely there's something short of

Swedish Labor Views

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Leader Favors Moderate Wage Demands

One of the biggest challenges in the current competition between the Soviet Union and the Western countries is to be found in the field of labor-management relations.

There is no equivalent on the Western side as yet for the discipline which the Soviets have achieved in handling their labor.

The Western countries are being urged to find voluntary methods that will attain some semblance of order in the wage-price problem and permit economic progress without disastrous interruptions due to major strikes.

In the United States, the friction between the two economic forces has long been recognized as serious, but no solution has been achieved.

Nobody wants to see the government run the labor unions or direct the management of the employing companies.

So the tendency thus far has been to rely on some form of government mediation. It has not always proved effective.

Europeans, on the other hand, have made some progress toward voluntary settlement of disputes which it would be desirable for America in particular to examine and see whether some of the same principles could not be successfully applied in this country.

On this writer's recent trip to Europe, he had an opportunity for a long talk, in Sweden, with Arne Geijer, who is not only chairman of the Swedish Federation of Labor Unions but also chairman of the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions.

He has often visited the United States and is well known to its labor leaders. Mr. Geijer is a member of the Swedish Senate and is frequently mentioned in discussions as likely to be the next prime minister of Sweden.

In the interview which this writer had with him, it was apparent that Mr. Geijer sees clearly the gravity of the whole labor problem in the world today.

He favors a policy of moderate wage demands rather than hit-or-miss settlements which hurt the economy.

He says that wages must not get out of line with the development of industrial productivity. This is, of course, even more important to European countries, which must watch their competitive position closely in export markets.

THE SWEDISH labor leader is also insistent that workers must moderate their wage demands with respect to social-welfare measures. He sees a growing competition between labor and government in the field of social welfare. He thinks that workers cannot have both—maximum wage increases and generous so-called welfare arrangements. He would prefer to see the government handle the whole welfare problem.

It has taken time for Mr. Geijer to convince local labor leaders of the long-range advantages of a moderate wage policy and better cooperation with management, but he is making substantial progress.

He said, incidentally, that the United States has a lot to learn about the settling of disputes with labor. But perhaps the real weakness is that in America there is no national body—composed of labor and management leaders—which can have a powerful moderating influence on the different labor unions and persuade management to strive harder for the improvement of wage scales.

So many large unions have arisen that the AFL-CIO is more of a coordinating body today than a disciplinary institution. It is rare that the top labor leaders of the United States exercise any direct influence in unions outside their own industries.

MR. GEIJER, in his capacity as chairman of the International Federation of Free Trade Unions, recently made some interesting points in this connection in an address to the International Labor Conference in Geneva. He said:

"Industrial expansion in the economically developed countries is going very fast at present. It is accompanied by steady changes in the life of the community. The functioning of society is more and more dependent on an increasingly elaborate machinery.

"We know from recent experience that even relatively small disputes in the labor market can have quite disastrous effects on the economy of an individual country.

"One is therefore always faced with the problem of how to limit labor dispute strikes and lock-outs by democratic means, in order to benefit as much as possible from the rapid pace of development.

"In some countries these problems have been solved through legislation, which, in many cases covers quite extensive areas, and this is an infringement upon the freedom of the parties in the labor market to secure peaceful conditions.

"To my mind, the freedom of the parties in the labor market to negotiate agreements concerning wages and working conditions is an essential part of a democratic society....

"However, we must not misuse this freedom. Otherwise the state can be forced to intervene or can make an excuse for doing so in order to ward off serious harm to the community. The freedom of the parties in the labor market to fix wages and working conditions without interference is therefore a freedom under responsibility....

"The national unions must also give enough power to the central organization to enable it to settle the demarcation disputes between them.

"During the last decade most of the agreements concluded in my own country have been reached as a result of central negotiations between the two top organizations, that is to say, the confederation of Swedish employers and ourselves.

"Only on one occasion have the national unions negotiated separately. It is likely that central negotiations covering the whole wage market will be the rule also in the future. But a condition for central negotiations is good will on the employers' side and an atmosphere of understanding for the needs and demands of the different low-paid groups especially."

ALL IS NOT optimism about the future of labor relations in Sweden. There are fears of a major strike next year—the first in many years. Wages keep on going up, and so do prices. Profit margins are narrowing.

That's why so many of Sweden's industrialist pin their hopes on the European Common Market. They look for increased volume even at smaller profit margins to help them out of their wage dilemmas.

Are Coeds Smarter?

Coeds earn higher grades with less study than college men of equal ability, according to a Kent State University graduate student.

In his master's thesis on study and achievement, Richard V. Walle of Kent reported women averaged three and one-half hours a week less at the study table than men but still came out on top, gradewise.

His findings are based on study time and grades of 334 freshmen students during the winter quarter of this year. The group included 168 women and 166 men.

Walle found that the men tended to crowd their study time at examination periods, while the coeds studied at a more even rate throughout the term.

His study also showed that while the men tended to reduce their study time as their grades went up, the women did just the opposite.

He commented that there was a need for further study of the relationship between time spent in study and academic success in college, stating:

"Educators have apparently assumed that a positive relationship exists between time spent in study and academic success in college.

"Numerous professors inform their classes that each student should spend approximately two hours in study outside of class for every hour in class. Other instructors tell their classes that the minimum time to be spent in study outside of class for every hour in class is two hours.

"The latter statement at least acknowledges the existence of individual differences, while the former statement seems to overlook them. There is need for more evidence which would tend either to sustain or refute arguments concerning the relationship between time spent in study and academic success in college."

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My boy friend won't dress up. He hates ties and refuses to wear one. For a Saturday night date he shows up in jeans. Often he's the only fellow in the crowd who is not wearing a suit.

I've pleaded with him to wear a sport shirt and slacks when we go to a dance but he refuses. His line is, "You'll have to take me as I am or not at all."

Please don't get the idea that he can't afford to dress up. His mother has told me that she is sick of seeing his good things hang in the closet till he outgrows them. She's been begging him for years to dress up but he won't. What do you suggest? — EX-ASPERATED.

Dear Ex: Your boy friend probably still is rebelling against his mother.

Instead of nagging (and reminding him of good of Mom) put the shoe on the other foot. Say: "If you want to date me you'll have to grow up, Sonny Boy, and set aside your childish foolishness."

His refusal to wear the proper clothing shows a lack of consideration. Please note I said proper not expensive, fancy or new.

Mature Woman

Dear Ann: I agree with you

most of the time but you have a pet theory which makes me see red. I refer to your repeated advice that a man should not marry a woman older than himself.

My husband is 7 1/2 years my junior and I make no secret of it. "Doc" and I have three lovely children and we get along beautifully. Although it seems unlikely that our romance will go down in history we are much happier than our more conventionally-matched friends.

Perhaps this cockeyed notion that the "young" woman is the most desirable (and therefore the prize) has been pounded into our heads by the advertising agencies. The ideal is youth, youth and more youth. If women took it seriously we'd all shoot ourselves on our 30th birthday.

Please, Ann, take it easy when a man writes about a woman who is "a few years older." She could make him a wonderful wife for all you know.—"DOC'S" OLD DOLL.

Dear Doll: There are many exceptions and you and "Doc" are probably good examples, but as a general rule, marriages don't work out well if the woman is older.

Some women age rapidly after 30. The wife who at 44 looks like 30, can make a younger shooting husband run like 60.

Unheeded Warning

Dear Ann: When I read the letter from the husband who complained because his wife put the dish towels in with the wash clothes, I was stopped cold. A soulmate!

I married the same type but let's face it, fellas, we're to blame. My girl's mother was a slob who didn't even set a table. They ate from the pan. You can't get much lower than that. The house was always a wreck. Nothing was ever mended, repaired or replaced.

My folks warned me that my own house would look the same way if I married the girl but I paid no attention. Now I see the sadness in their eyes when I go to their home for a good dinner once a week. It's the only home-cooked meal I get. My wife doesn't want to ruin her fingernails.

It's too late for me, but watch out, gents, my wife has two sisters who are looking for husbands.—DITTO.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The Doctor Says

By DR. H. T. HYMAN

Be Wary of One-Shot Hay-Fever Cure

Q—How good is the one-shot injection for the relief of hay fever?

A—The effectiveness of what's called "repository therapy for pollenosis" (hay fever) has not been established.

What's even more important, there have been many curious reactions to injection of the water-in-oil emulsion that's used to deliver the pollen extract. On this account, many authorities warn against "complicity regarding the safety of repository injections."

While it's true that a single injection has obvious attraction for those who have had to have multiple injections on previous occasions, it is my opinion that the safety factor should be rated higher than that of convenience.

Q—My wife has just returned from a TB sanitarium where she's been for over a year. She still hasn't negative sputum although she has been given streptomycin, seromycin, INH, viomycin, PAS and other drugs. My doctor knows I am writing you to see if you have any other suggestions.

A—Sight unseen, I should be inclined to suspect that your wife has a tuberculous cavity that may be accessible to surgery. If she is well enough to come home, and still has positive sputum after such impressive treatment, it's quite likely that she has a small, thickly-walled cavity in which the bacilli are nesting.

Q—While carrying our four-year old son, I had more pep and energy than I ever had before, or since. After his birth I again became tired and easily fatigued. My complexion is poor. I've taken all kinds of tonics as well as vitamin shots but I haven't been able to duplicate the health I enjoyed during pregnancy. Can you explain this?

A—I won't promise to supply the answer. But I do have a suggestion that's worth a try, particularly if you are lean.

It's not uncommon for women of the greyhound type of build to report unusual well-being throughout the carrying period. In such instances the growing womb and its passenger act as a sort of built-in belly-binder. The sagging stomach and intestines are held up. There is a lesser tendency of blood pressure to fall when the woman stands on her feet for any considerable time (orthostatic Hypotension).

As a result, "all's well with the world" until the baby is born. And then all the old complaints return with a vengeance.

The thing to do, of course, is to get a good firm corset, one of the old-fashioned kind with lacing. Put it on while you're lying flat, with your hips a bit elevated. Put a small pad down where it will do the most good.

Or better still, how about another pregnancy?

Dear Reader: Dr. Hyman appreciates your comments and questions but regrets that the heavy volume of his mail doesn't permit him to answer each individual letter or post card. However, he will comment in columns like the above upon matters of general or unusual interest.

New Escheat Law To Be Boon To Ohio

State Sen. Edmund A. Sargus of St. Clairsville said today that the State of Ohio stands to obtain a financial windfall under a law which becomes effective Oct. 12, 1961.

A bill co-sponsored by Sen. Sargus with Sens. Eugene J. Sawicki of Cleveland, and Kenneth F. Berry of Coshocton, at the request of Attorney General Mark McElroy, becomes effective on that date. Under this law enacted by the last legislature, the attorney general is empowered to claim abandoned personal property of citizens of Ohio in the other states, and the money thus obtained would go into the general fund of Ohio for general purposes, subject to claims of legal owners.

According to Sargus, Ohio has been one of few states that have no escheat laws applicable to unclaimed personal property within the state. Because of the lack of such laws financial institutions such as banks retain custody of abandoned deposits, even though they are subject to rightful claim at all times. Escheat is a legal term used to indicate property that reverts to a state as custodian because there are no rightful claimants.

Attorney General McElroy has announced that he hopes to obtain about $80,000 annually from the state of New Jersey alone in unclaimed dividends on stocks of Ohio firms incorporated in that state, and it is anticipated that several times this amount may be obtained from other states. Usually, states wait seven years before applying the escheat laws in determining abandonment.

City Survival Plans In Event Of Disaster Furthered by CD

Salem's survival plans in the event of a disaster were furthered Wednesday night when the local Civil Defense staff met at the American Legion Hall.

City Director George Bowman Jr. appointed Harmon E. Zepernick as deputy director of operations, and several other openings on the CD staff were discussed. The group formally approved the expenditure of $100 for radio crystals requested by Communications Chairman Floyd Craig. These crystals will give Salem an emergency communications system.

Donald Shoop, emergency housing chairman, reported progress in the establishment of a list of buildings which would be available as shelters for refugees and displaced local residents. An estimated 25,000 refugees will funnel into Salem from Youngstown.

Several churches and other local organizations with large buildings have been contacted, and cards listing the number of rooms and the facilities available are being made for each shelter.

Shoop suggested that the Emmanuel Lutheran Education Building, which will be available for CD use in time of disaster, would be well suited for use as an emergency hospital.

Harry R. Waller, deputy director of training, reported that no specially trained instructors were available in the northeastern Ohio area to teach a basic civil defense course in Salem. He will try to get a local instructor for the course.

Waller also said that Dr. William Koloszi, chairman of biological and chemical defense, will attend a training session in New York in late November.

For the general public, the Salem Red Cross is planning fall courses in first aid and home preparedness, which will emphasize civil defense preparations.

Secretary Eleanor Szkola and Mrs. Walter Worman, home preparedness chairman, told the group that about 500 pieces of literature were distributed at the booth which the Salem CD unit sponsored at the Columbiana County Fair. A portable fallout shelter constructed by Samuel Rea Jr. was the focal point of the booth.

At the close of the meeting, William Wark, deputy director of planning, commented on the pressing need of stirring the general public as well as public officials to meet their civil defense responsibilities.

Pamphlets on many aspects of civil defense and home preparedness are available to the public from CD Secretary Eleanor Szkola at the health office in City Hall.

New Ohio Driving Laws Become Effective Soon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A number of new laws affecting Ohio motorists become effective in the next few weeks, but only two will touch on the everyday habits of drivers.

Beginning Sept. 21, it will be illegal to drive with only parking lights from 30 minutes after sunset to 30 minutes before sunrise. Full headlights must be used during that period.

Plane

dale, at the crash scene minutes after the accident, said it appeared certain some "40 or 50 persons burned to death." He said the only part of the plane that was not afire was the tail section.

Civil Aeronautics Board officials went to the scene but were not immediately available for comment.

Thunderstorms raked the Chicago metropolitan area during the early part of the night but no rain was falling when the plane left Midway.

It was an all-tourist class flight and a stop was planned at Las Vegas, Nev., before reaching Los Angeles.

All five crew members were based in Los Angeles.

Witnesses said there was one baby and some children among the passengers.

A spokesman for TWA said: "The plane appeared to be coming from the north" when it crashed. "That is an unusual flight pattern" for a plane going from Chicago to Los Angeles.

20 Miles From Chicago
The plane, leaving Midway, normally would fly west. The crash scene is about 12 miles directly west of Midway Airport and about 1½ miles southwest of Hinsdale, a western suburb of some 15,000 people 20 miles west of downtown Chicago.

William Payne, 42, a plastics worker in a plant in nearby Downers Grove, said he heard the crash and drove to the scene.

"The plane just missed the five homes in the area," Payne said. "It came within about 150 feet of one of the homes."

Ambulances from scores of suburbs rushed to the scene. But no bodies were taken from the plane or the field. Hundreds of persons drove to the field.

Mrs. William Mouche, whose home is about 150 feet from the wrecked plane, said "it was a roar, louder than a wind storm and it went right over our heads. Then there was a crash and a muffled boom. When I looked out the window, all I could see was fire."

Dan Heidenreich, who lives about three blocks from the scene of the crash, said: "I saw a big ball of flames and right away started dressing. When I got to the crash site, all I could see was a big fire and blackened bodies. They were all over."

A TWA Lockheed Super-Constellation was involved in aviation's worst disaster last Dec. 18 when it and a United Air Lines DC8 jet collided over New York City, killing 134 persons.

A TWA Super-Constellation and a United Air Lines DC7 collided on June 30, 1956, over Arizona's Grand Canyon, killing 128 persons in the second worst commercial plane accident.

driving alone in a traffic car, spotted the car Neff had reported as suspicious earlier. He gave chase and overtook.

Kreuz, his gun drawn, approached the car in which he said two men had guns, and said: "Anyone who moves is a dead man."

There was an exchange of fire. Kreuz fired five shots.

The car sped off and was overtaken again by Kreuz. Fatally wounded on the front seat was John Mehlitz, 25, of Cleveland, a parolee. Beside him was Mrs. Betty Wade, 31, of Fairview Park. The blonde mother of five admitted she drove the getaway car in the robberies, police said.

Detective William Gallagher, who joined in the manhunt, later captured Donald L. McCormack, 23, of Cleveland, who fled from the car. He was barefooted and wore only a T-shirt and pants.

Thieves Strip Car, Burglarize Home

L. C. Bennett of RD 5, Salem, said he left his billfold on a display shelf while shopping at McAllister's Market, 748 E. State St., at approximately 2:30 p.m. yesterday and when he returned an hour later it was gone. He said the billfold contained $100 in currency.

Margaret A. Schaefer of 1873 N. Ellsworth Ave., reported that someone stole a billfold from her purse which she had left in a room on the third floor at City Hospital between 5:30 and 7:30 p.m. yesterday.

She said the billfold contained a $20 bill, some small change, two uncashed checks totaling $50 a credit card and other valuable papers.

Commissioners Set Road Restriction

LISBON — Effective Oct. 1, any right of way dedications for public thoroughfares in Columbiana County will have to be at least 60 feet wide.

County commissioners adopted that resolution Thursday on recommendation of County Engineer Charles O. Snyder.

Commissioners also accepted two new allotments—the Heck Moorehead Plat No. 1 in Elk run Township; and Burton W. Kerr's addition in Liverpool Township.

The Heck-Moorehead plat consists of three lots on 1.52 acres about 800 feet west of Route 7. It is the first of a development that eventually will encompass about 40 acres. Herbert Heck and Dr. James R. Moorehead, both of Columbiana, are the developers.

Kerr's allotment is divided into 10 lots and totals 5.88.

Miss Sandra Shaw of Lisbon, deputy clerk for the three county courts at Lisbon, East Palestine and Salem, was allowed up to $20 per month for travel between the three points.

highway fatalities to a minimum. In Illinois, Gov. Otto Kerner has urged all motorists to keep headlights burning at all times and to hold speeds to at least five miles below posted limits.

The council's estimate of 420 traffic deaths is higher than the traffic toll counted by The Associated Press in a 78-hour non-holiday weekend survey made between 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 18 and midnight Monday, Aug. 21.

During the four-day Independence Day holiday weekend this summer, 509 persons were killed in traffic accidents, 59 above the council's pre-holiday estimate.

In last year's three-day Labor Day holiday, 415 persons were killed in traffic accidents. Other violent deaths included 83 drownings, 28 in boating accidents and 90 in miscellaneous type mishaps for a total of 616.

to adopt the strongest kind of resolution—one that would criticize the Soviet Union harshly for resuming tests. If the United States can persuade a big number of the Asian-African members to support such a resolution, it would hand the Soviet Union a thumping propaganda blow.

President Kennedy's statement that the United States has sufficient nuclear weapons in its arsenal for defense of the Free World was interpreted here as showing determination not to be stampeded into following the Soviets in resuming tests.

Kennedy's carefully worded message to the Belgrade conference of nonaligned nations was also drawing praise among the neutrals.

U.N. Severs Relations With Katanga

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—The United Nations announced today it is breaking all relations with the Katanga government.

The U.N. representative, Concor Cruise O'Brien, said in a letter to President Moise Tshombe "the United Nations cannot maintain relations with a government which included a minister against whom the most serious charges are pending."

O'Brien referred to latest developments in Katanga as "flagrant breaches of the charter and declaration of human rights."

The United Nations Thursday asked Tshombe to fire Godefroid Munongo, minister of the interior, on the grounds he was under "grave suspicion" of plotting the murder of U.N. personnel and atrocities against Baluba tribesmen. Munongo denied the charges and won the president's support.

The charges came from Andre Cremer, a Belgian, who said he had served in Katanga's gendarmerie and had been given a special mission to kill Michel Tombelaine, the deputy U.N. chief here. Munongo countered that Cremer was a known criminal wanted on theft and forgery charges.

Resistance to U.N. operations has stiffened here in recent days as it became more and more apparent the world body was striving to bring this secessionist province back under the wing of the central government in Leopoldville.

Tigers Cut Lead To 1½ With 8-2 Win Over White Sox

Yanks Bow 5-4, But Mantle Blasts 48th

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
The second place Detroit Tigers open a three-game showdown against first place New York tonight at Yankee Stadium after closing within 1½ games of the American League leaders with an 8-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox Thursday.

Minnesota beat the Yankees 5-4 despite Mickey Mantle's 48th home run. The Mick's shot put him within three of teammate Roger Maris and left him one ahead of Babe Ruth's record-60 pace in 1927. It was one of three homers by the Yankees, who bettered their AL record with 195 for the season.

KC Wins Double Header
Cleveland sent Washington to a 13th straight defeat, 2-1, and Kansas City took two from Los Angeles, 17-3 and 6-5. Boston and Baltimore were idle.

Hutch Happy Over Team Play, Schedule

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Cincinnati Reds manager Fred Hutchinson today was almost exuberant before the start of a four-game series against last-place Philadelphia Saturday night.

Both the way his National League leading team has been playing and his September schedule pleased the frequently glum ex-pitcher.

"Our pitching favors us in the stretch drive," he declared, "and those 11 off days are going to keep us fresh."

"The Los Angeles Dodgers, on the other hand, have seven more games to play in the same number of days. And 12 of their remaining games are with the other two contenders, the San Francisco Giants and the Milwaukee Braves."

The Braves had just added another game to the Reds' lead by edging Los Angeles, 2-1. Cincinnati now leads Los Angeles by three games.

But then Hutchinson grew worried again.

"What our guys will have to guard against most is a letdown, especially against a club like the Phillies," he warned. "They've been playing much better ball recently. And don't forget, they have the law of averages going for them when they play us."

The Reds have won all 16 games they have played against Philadelphia so far.

One thing that may slow the Reds is Frank Robinson's ailing knee. Hutchinson was unsure whether the slugging outfielder will be in the lineup.

Robinson's knee was hurt almost two weeks ago when he was caught between bases during a game with St. Louis. He has been taking heat treatments and played only intermittently.

Several College Grid Teams Could Cop National Title

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
The nation's college football teams, almost oblivious to how the Labor Day weekend will be spent elsewhere, buckle down to two-day drills today in preparation for the season which begins in earnest three weeks from now.

A number of new coaches are set to roll out their own teams for the first time, from Iowa's Jerry Burns, given the best chance to lead the 1961 national champions, to Virginia's Bill Ellis, who inherits college football's longest losing string of 28 games.

Along with Iowa are Kansas, Louisiana State, UCLA, Penn State, all picked as the teams to beat for the national title.

Iowa Has 19 Lettermen
Burns welcomed 19 lettermen, including eight starters from last year's Big Ten co-champions as he took over for the retired Forest Evashevski.

Minnesota, the defending national champion who shared the 1960 Big Ten title with the Hawkeyes, lost five lettermen, including All-America guard Tom Brown, and is not expected to be the threat this year.

Kansas Coach Jack Mitchell is faced with the loss of halfback Bert Coan, who broke a leg in spring practice, but is more than consoled with all-around quarterback John Hadl, halfback Curtis McClinton, and a large, mobile line that makes the Jayhawks the team to beat in the Big Eight.

LSU Battles Mississippi
Louisiana State, whose iron-clad defense led the nation in being least scored upon, is loaded with juniors and will give defending Southwestern Conference champion Mississippi a battle for the top spot.

Penn State with 15 lettermen back, tops the East's independent. Quarterback Roman Gabriel led North Carolina State's contingent of 17 lettermen picked to oust defending champion Duke in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Start Two-A-Day Grid Sessions Monday

Ohio State Team Built Around 27 Lettermen

Ohio State University's football squad of 75 will begin two-a-day practice drills Monday, Labor Day.

Coach Woody Hayes, beginning his 11th year as head Buckeye mentor, will have 27 lettermen in the fold, including eight from last year's defensive unit and six from the offense. The platoon system again will be employed as far as possible, a plan which netted seven victories in nine games last season.

until the week of autumn quarter classes Sept. 25 when only afternoon drills will be conducted.

Promising sophomores in the fold include highly-regarded halfbacks Paul Warfield of Warren and Matt Snell of Locust Valley, N.Y.; quarterback Joe Sparma of Massillon; ends Ormonde Ricketts, of Springfield and Keith Smith of Dayton; tackles Charles Mamula of Martins Ferry and James Bearss of Toledo; guards Wes Mirick of Columbus, Tom Jenkins of Dayton, Al Parker of Dover and Dennis Hurlinger of Lima; center Dean Fronk of Dover and fullback Bill Hall of Dayton.

THREE CHANGES have been made in the varsity coaching staff. William Gunlock, formerly of Army, and a graduate of Miami University, (O.) will be the defensive coach; Jim Herbstreit will serve as defensive backfield coach and Alan Fiers, who, like Herbstreit was a member of the 1960 squad, will serve as assistant and scout.

Missing from last year's staff are Gordon Larson, who now is head football coach at Akron University, and Gene Slaughter, who is serving in the same capacity at Capital University.

Heading the varsity returnees in playing time is guard Mike Ingram, defensive standout, who played 334 minutes. Other members of the defensive unit available are halfback Bill Hess (109 minutes); halfback Ron Houck (237); linebacker Bill Krukowski (193), (now the No. 1 offensive quarterback); end Tom Perdue (237); tackle Daryl Sanders (149); tackle George Tolford (221), and end Sam Tidmore (301).

Other lettermen reporting include fullbacks Roger Detrick and Dave Francis; place kicker Ben Jones of Salem; guards Dave Katterhenrich and Gary Moeller; quarterbacks John Mummey and Jack Wallace; halfbacks David Tingley, Ed Ulmer of Brookfield, and Ken Johnson; center Jerry Vanscoy, and ends George Wittmer, Larry Stephens and Paul Martin.

Of this group, Moeller had by far the most playing time with 161 minutes. He was followed by Detrick with 95 and Ulmer with 91.

THE SQUAD of 75 has 31 sophomores, 25 juniors and 19 seniors. No captain or co-captains will be elected until late September. Two-a-day drills will be held

Final Action Slated In Tennis Tourney
Quarter-final action in the Columbian County Open Tennis Tourney will take place Saturday at the Salem Country Club. Semi-finals will be held Sunday and the champions will be decided Monday.

Four matches will be held in singles action Saturday while three will be held in the doubles division.

Bob Trombold of East Palestine will battle Phil Wenner of Lisbon in the first match at 10 a.m. Woody Deitch matches kills with Rich Hunter and Maurice Young is slated to meet Dick Kapp. Dave Hunter will meet the winner of a match between Gordon Scott and Ray Rogers, in the final.

In doubles action the team of Wenner and Scott have already downed Malloy and Stiam, 6-0, 6-2 to gain the semi-finals.

In quarter-final action to be decided Saturday, Kapp and Jeff Pidgeon, Trombold and Mart in challenge Joe Decort and Rogers. The Hunter brothers, Dick and Dave, play Parker and Campbell.

Major League Stars
By The Associated Press
Pitching—Bob Hendley, Braves, southpaw rookie allowed only six hits, walked just two and struck out five for 2-1 victory over Dodgers.

Hitting—Wayne Causey, Athletics, hit grand-slam homer in opener and drove in winning run with two-out ninth-inning single in second game as Kansas City swept doubleheader from Angels, 17-3 and 6-5.

Lisbon Gridders Face Boardman Tonight
LISBON — The new lighting system at War Memorial Stadium gets its first test tonight when the Blue Devils take on Boardman High in a practice game at 8.

Lisbon Booster Club relocated lights on the east side of the field this summer to provide better illumination.

Coach Edwin (Bud) Bucher said tonight's game will be open only to persons in the Lisbon school district.

The Blue Devils will practice Saturday morning and twice on Labor Day.

Grant Keeps Mastery Over Senators 3-2

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cleveland's Jim Grant continued his mastery over the Washington Senators Thursday night, chalking up a 3-2 victory for his 11th triumph against no defeats in Griffith Stadium in his four years in the majors.

Grant's victory was his 13th against eight defeats this season and ran his lifetime record to 19-3 against Washington. The loss was the Senators' 13th in a row.

Tonight the Indians will be in Baltimore to open a four-game set with the Orioles. Barry Latman (10-4) will start for the Tribe, opposed by Chuck Estrada (11-7).

Cubs, Cards Win Contests

Braves Shade Dodgers 2-1 On Double Steal

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Milwaukee Braves scored the winning run on a double steal and climbed back into third place with a 2-1 victory over Los Angeles Thursday night that dropped the second place Dodgers three games behind idle Cincinnati in the National League pennant race.

Milwaukee edged past San Francisco into third place when the Giants lost to the Chicago Cubs 6-1 for their sixth defeat in seven games. St. Louis beat Philadelphia 2-1.

The Braves nailed the Dodgers with a second inning home run by Frank Thomas and the third inning double steal by Lee Maye and Hank Aaron. It was home run No. 27 for Thomas and one of six Milwaukee hits off loser Don Drysdale (10-9). Rookie Bob Hendley (53) won it.

The Cubs chased Juan Marichal (13-9) while collecting all of their 10 hits in the first three innings. Southpaw Jack Curtis (9-10) was the winner, blanking the Giants on six hits.

A two-out triple by Stan Musial broke a 1-1 tie for the Cards in the ninth. It scored Ken Boyer, who reached base with the only walk given up by loser Art Mahaffey (9-18). Bob Gibson (10-10) was the winning pitcher, blanking the Phils over the last eight innings on four hits.

Stepanic's Wins 5-4 In AA Playoffs

Two errors in the seventh inning allowed a run to score and handed Stepanic's Tavern a 5-4 victory over Shaffer Ford in the Class Double AA City Softball League playoffs last night.

The best two-of-three series is deadlocked as Shaffer's upset Stepanic's 8-2 in their first meeting Monday. The deciding game will be played Saturday night, along with the second game between the league-leading Herron Transfer and third place Old Dutch. Stepanic's finished second in regular season play and Shaffer's placed fourth.

Stepanic's scored a run in the second and third innings to take an early lead but Shaffer's showed across three runs in the fourth. Neither team scored again until the winners moved ahead with two runs in the top of the sixth only to have their lead erased as Shaffer's scored once and tied the game at four all. After scoring in the top of the seventh the Stepanic nine held the losers scoreless to secure the victory.

Dave Drakulich and Ed Daugherty led the winners at the plate as they both smashed triples. Ferguson had two hits in three trips for the losers.

Lou Slaby Slated For Fullback Spot At Pitt University

Lou Slaby, a former Salem football star, is expected to start at fullback when the University of Pittsburgh opens its 1961 grid season at Miami of Florida on Sept. 16.

Slaby, a junior this year, reportedly showed tremendous improvement in spring practice. Always a strong defensive player and good blocker, Slaby has improved his running. A powerful runner, he has learned to start faster and this could make a lot of difference.

Slaby was running with the first string backfield at the end of spring training. Quarterback Jim Traficant and halfbacks Bob Clemens and Fred Cox round out the backfield.

The 19-year-old Slaby stands 5-3 and tips the scales at 225 pounds. He will get his toughest battle for the starting position from Richard Lesson, who is reported to be one of the best sophomore prospects Pitt has ever had.

Pitt will open its home schedule against Baylor Sept. 20. Other home games include West Virginia, Oct. 14; Navy, Oct. 28; Notre Dame, Nov. 11; U.S.C., on Nov. 18 and Penn State, Nov. 25.

Kent All-Stars, Angie's Win In Salem Tourney

The Kent All-Stars and Angie's Pizza grabbed early round wins Thursday night in the 32-team Salem Invitational Softball Tournament being played at Kelley Park.

The Kent team squeaked by Niles Reese Floral 4-3, with both teams getting only four hits. A hit batsman, two infield outs and a wild pitch tied the score a 3-all for the Niles in the top of fifth, but the All-Stars got the winning run in their half of the fifth on an error and Steve Banya's double.

In Angie's 3-0 win over Tullis and Don Hutton of Angie's hooked up in a pitchers battle until the sixth inning when winner's pushed across all three of runs. Hutton struck out 10 and gave up only three hits in the shut-out performance.

In tonight's action, Midland Local 1212 will tangle with Stepanic's Tavern at 7:45 p.m., and East Liverpool's Gallagher's Market will meet Alliance Amvets at 9 p.m.

Golfing's 'Big Three' Set For Dallas Open

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Gary Player, Arnold Palmer and Doug Sanders — the big three of golf's golden trail — led the most talented field of the $30,000 Dallas Open ever has had into the first round today.

There were 141 in the field for the sixth annual tournament and those included 18 of the top 20 money-winners. Player has won $60,401.77, Palmer $55,499.59 and Sanders $48,679.90 as 1, 2, 3 in the money parade.

The scene is the par 70, 6,800-yard Oak Cliff Country Club course.

Brown Hopes To Improve Rushing Game

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Fullback Jim Brown, looking sharp and as indestructible as ever, expects more rugged action against the Pittsburgh Steelers in Akron Saturday night.

The Cleveland Browns' all-pro player says he'd like to improve on his ground-gaining statistics. In three exhibition games, he has averaged five yards per carry.

Filled with the zest of a rookie, Brown said he hopes to start his fifth National Football League campaign free of aches, pains and bruises.

The former Syracuse All-America is nearing his playing weight of 227 pounds. He's only 25, but in four years with the Browns has led the league in yardage each season. He also holds the NFL rushing records for a single game (237) and a season (1,527).

Coach Paul Brown said he'll continue to use Brown in only part of the exhibition games so his bread-and-butter man won't wear himself out before the regular season ends. The Browns play 14 league games this year, two more than usual.

But the coach admitted his No. 1 ball carrier had carried the ball frequently in the preseason games. "He likes that," Brown said. "All the good running backs would rather run than block. Their instinct, one of the things that makes them good, is to avoid the tackle."

Laver Favored In U.S. Tennis Action

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — The National Tennis Championships get under way at the West Side Tennis Club today with Australia's Rod Laver the favorite to win the men's and gobs of gloom in the U.S. camp.

Laver, who won the Wimbledon title with a straight-set decision over Chuck McKinley of St. Louis, won't get into action until Sunday because he drew a first-round bye. McKinley is the only United States player rated even a chance of breaking the Australian domination of the title which has lasted through the last five years—Ken Rosewall, Mal Anderson, Ashley Cooper and the past two years Neale Fraser.

Fraser won't be on hand to defend. He's recovering from an operation. McKinley saw action right off, facing George Stoeser of Tucson, Ariz. It will be the first men's match of the 28 scheduled for the opening day. The tournament will wind up a week from Sunday.

In the women's division, Darlene Hard, 25, Montebello, Calif., started defense of her crown against Christine Safford of Lansdowne, Pa.

49ers, Rams In Exhibition Fray Tonight

By ROBERT MOORE
Associated Press Sports Writer
The San Francisco 49ers visit the Los Angeles Rams tonight in an exhibition game which could serve only one purpose—determine which of the two clubs might be the stronger in the coming National Football League race.

Neither club is expected to cut a very fancy figure when NFL teams start playing for keeps Sept. 17.

There's one other NFL game on tonight's exhibition program. The Baltimore Colts, hoping to return to the form that won them world crowns in 1958 and 1959, collide with the Dallas Cowboys at Norman, Okla.

The 49ers-Rams fracas could explode into a free-for-all battle of offensive swiftness since both have pretty fair runners but questionable defenses.

Coach Red Hickey of the 49ers has a barrage of sprinters including Ray Norton, J. D. Smith, Gil (Cannonball) Cooper and J. W. Lockett.

The Rams, coached by Bob Waterfield, expect to generate an abundance of speed from Jon Arnett, Tom Wilson, Pervis Atkins and Dick Bass.

Baltimore Coach Weeb Ewbank will take another look at his fullback candidates tonight against the Cowboys. He's seeking a successor to the retired Alan Ameche.

Joe Perry, 12-year veteran obtained from San Francisco, seems to have the inside track.

McClellan Urges Laws Against Race Wire Services

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan has recessed Senate rackety hearings with this observation: "Race information wire services, operated for the benefit of bookmakers, must be put out of business by federal law."

And, the Arkansas Democrat added Thursday, his Senate investigations subcommittee "will recommend a law to bring this about soon."

McClellan ran into persistent pleading of the Fifth Amendment's protection as he sought to quiz race wire operators about their business. He said race wires are "the very life blood" of bookmaking, and that hoodlums who run such enterprises cheat the government out of billions of dollars a year in income and wagering taxes.

McClellan recessed the hearings until Sept. 7, when the investigation will focus on the business of setting betting odds in horse racing, basketball, football, baseball and other sports. The subcommittee already has heard odds can be rigged—and often are—in favor of bookmakers.

Owen (Owney) Madden, the old New York mobster, invoked the Fifth Amendment Thursday when the subcommittee sought to learn if he now operates a race wire service in Hot Springs, Ark.

Now 68, Madden said he had given up "criminal activities" and retired, but he refused to tell from what he retired. He said that might incriminate him in some way.

Miami of Ohio's Most Efficient Back and Most Efficient Line-man of 1960 both return for the 1961 season. Fullback Bill Triplett copped the backfield award and guard Joe Galat was the line-man named.

WINCE-SOME MISS — Mary Lowell, of Hayward, Calif., wins as she misses a putt on the 15th green at Seattle. Despite the muffed putt, she won the national girls' junior championship one up from Margaret Martin, of St. Clairsville, Ohio.

200 Attend Friends Church Site Dedication

The First Friends Church's future location at 1028 Jennings Ave. was dedicated at a service Thursday evening.

The six and one-half acre tract was purchased in 1958 and the congregation plans to start construction of its new church building next Spring.

Two hundred persons attended the service that was in charge of Rev. Harold B. Winn. The prayer was given by Rev. Charles Haworth, who retired today after having been assistant pastor for the past three years.

A corn roast at the grounds followed the service of dedication.

Why good drivers in Ohio are switching to Allstate
Auto Insurance

1. They find that, year after year, Allstate policyholders have saved real folding money on their auto insurance. You can't buy better protection—so why pay more?
2. They like the Good Driver Plan which offers lower rates to drivers with accident-free records.
3. They want protection against cancellation of their liability insurance. After 90 days, new policyholders are given written assurance that their liability protection won't be cancelled just because of accidents... assurance for a full 5-year period from the date of their policy.

These benefits apply to private passenger autos, individually owned, or owned by husband and wife... but are not afforded to assigned risks.

No wonder Allstate writes more auto liability insurance than any other company in the world. Why don't you see or phone an Allstate Agent now
